

LIBERIAN STUDENT UNION IN CHINA (LSUIC)

Office of the National Deputy Secretary General

Monthly Report – March

1. Overview

- This report highlights the activities and contributions of the Office of the National Deputy Secretary General for the month of March.
- The month was characterized by intensive administrative, media, and coordination responsibilities, alongside the reopening of the academic semester.

2. Key Responsibilities Executed

- Strengthened communication and membership engagement within the union
- Supported publicity and media design for national programs and committees
- Maintained discipline and compliance within official communication platforms
- Collaborated with various national offices and committees

3. Activities Undertaken

3.1 Membership Engagement

- Conducted bi-weekly dissemination of membership links
 - Encouraged new scholars to register
 - Prompted existing members to update their information

3.2 Media & Publicity Design

- Designed and published a welcome Month Artwork for the month of March
- Developed flyers and handled publicity for:
 - Legacy Hour (6th, 7th, 8th & 9th Editions)
 - Theme: "Honoring Our Past, Engaging Our Present, Inspiring Our Future"
 - Financial Literacy Program & Fundraiser (in collaboration with the Office of the National Financial Secretary General)
 - "Back to School" Program (Program & Planning Committee)
 - Chaplaincy Program (March 14): "Harvesting the Fruit of Your Full Potential"
 - Academic Excellence Program: "Thesis Writing"

3.3 Monitoring & Compliance

- Regular monitoring of WeChat chatrooms to ensure adherence to union rules
- Addressed violations and ensured appropriate fines were issued when necessary

3.4 Recognition & Motivation

- Confidentially selected and published four (4) “Scholars of the Week”
 - Recognizing dedication and contributions to the union

3.5 Inter-Committee Collaboration

- Actively supported multiple committees through design and publicity efforts
- Strengthened coordination between offices to ensure program visibility and success

4. Key Achievements

- Maintained consistent membership engagement through regular updates
- Successfully supported publicity for multiple national programs
- Enhanced visibility and branding of LSUIC activities through quality designs
- Recognition of Four(4) distinct scholars through the “Scholar of the Week” initiative
- Ensured discipline and order within communication platforms

5. Challenges / Observations

- Simultaneous academic commitments
 - The start of a new semester, balancing my school work with that of the union's work was a bit difficult
- High workload due to:
 - Increasing union responsibilities and program demands

6. Conclusion

- The month of March was productive yet demanding, marked by strong contributions in communication, publicity, and coordination.
- Despite challenges, the Office of the National Deputy Secretary General remained committed to advancing the goals and visibility of LSUIC while balancing my academic responsibilities.

Submitted by:

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be 'JG Wilson', written over a circular stamp or seal.

Jenkins G. Wilson

National Deputy Secretary General

Liberia Student Union in China